

India-Japan Relations: The Regional Perspective

Sanjaya Baru

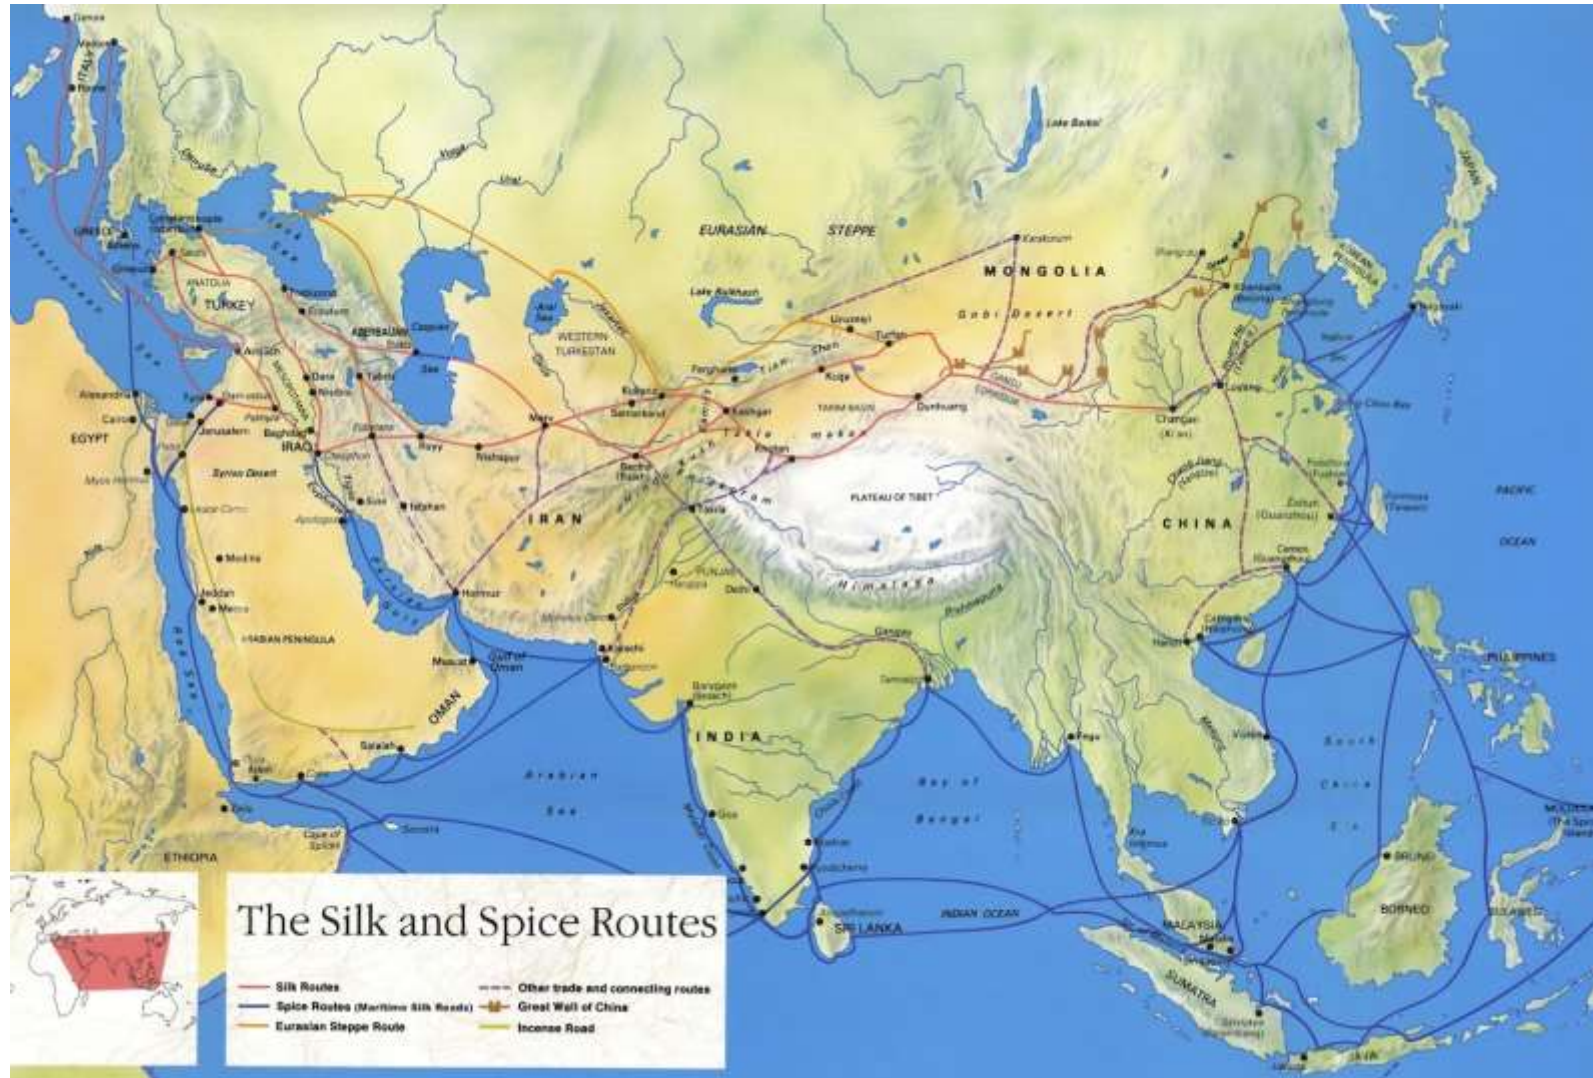

Centre for Policy Research, India

International Institute of Strategic Studies, UK

Regional Connectivity: Role of India and Japan

- India at the “crossroads of Asia” – Land & Maritime
- Japan’s strategic stake in trans-Asian and Indian Ocean connectivity
- Japan – India Economic Synergy – Capital/ Technology/ Resources/
Labour/ Security

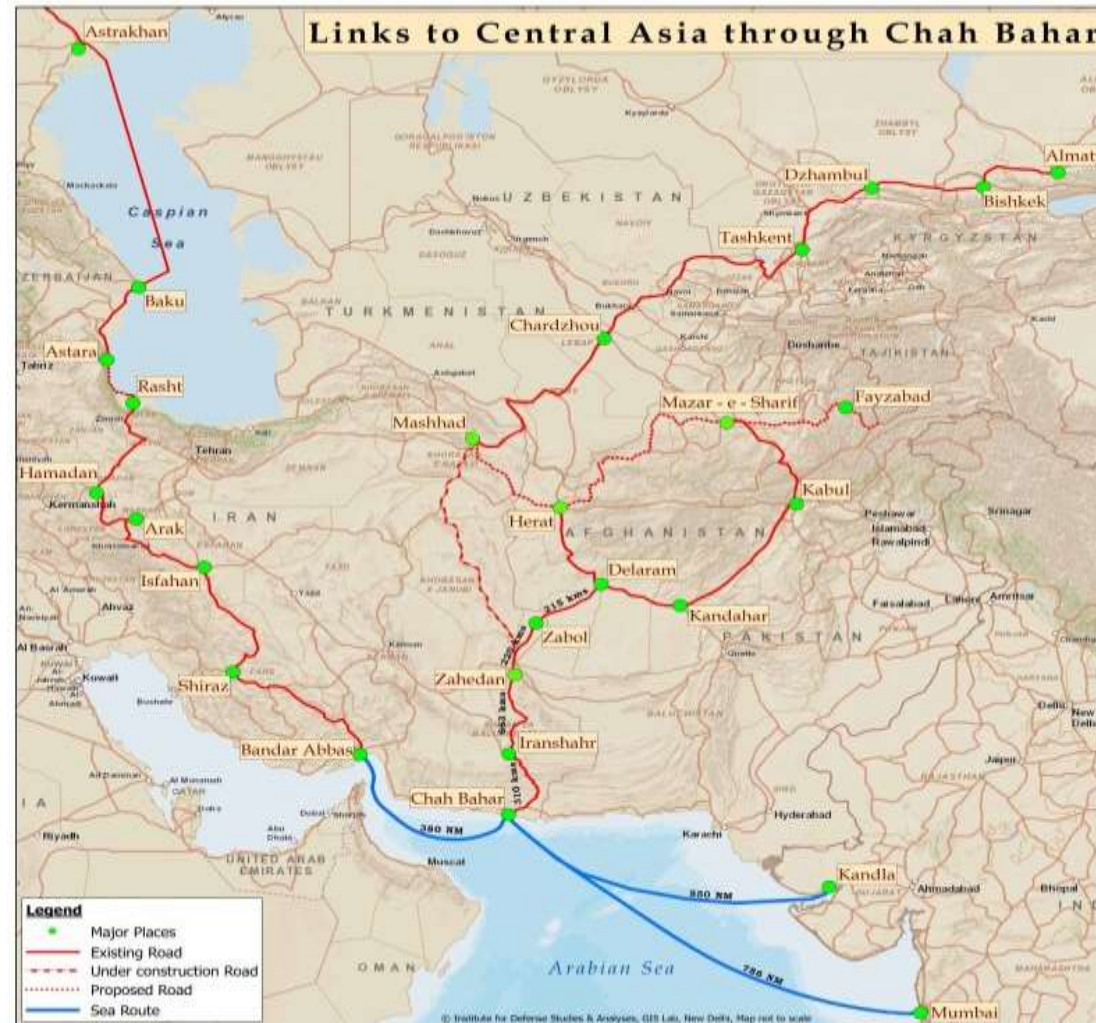

Trans-Asian & Indian Ocean Links

India and South-east Asia

India- Iran – Central Asia - Europe

International North South Transport Corridor

The Indian Ocean Great Game

Intra-India India Connectivity

Delhi-Mumbai

: MOU – GoI & GoJ, Dec 2006. DMIC Dev Corp (DMICDC), 2008.
49% GoI equity; 26% JBIC equity; 25% Govt Fls. Japan's financial support = $4.5 Billion in first phase.

Bengaluru-Mumbai

: Economic corridor. UK aid proposed

Chennai- Bengaluru

: Industrial corridor. Japanese assistance expected

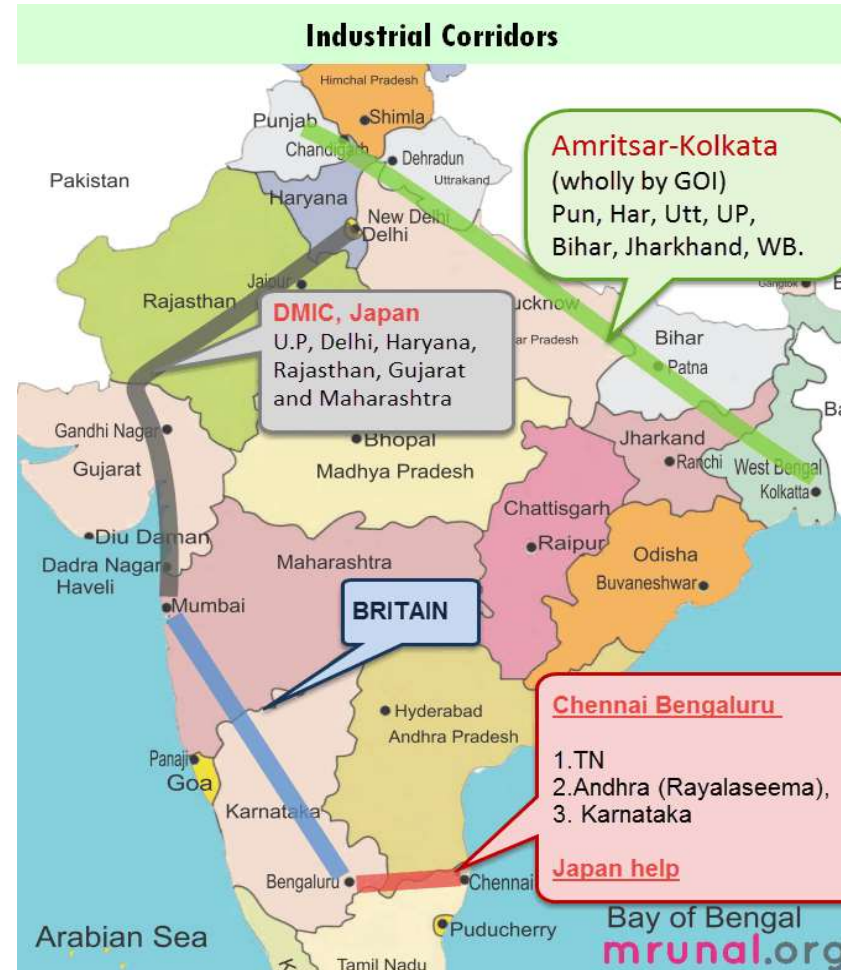

Vizag – Chennai

: ADB funded approved

Amritsar- Kolkata

: DMICDC project proposal

Intra-India Corridors

From Geo-economics To Geopolitics – Multipolar Asia

- Japan's Demographic Transition and Economic Size
- Economic Capacity and Military Capability
- Japan's Soft Power vs Hard Power

- Japan's Strategic Policy in Asia – Japan/ China : Japan/ Pakistan
- China, Pakistan & North Korea Axis
- Japan in a Multipolar Asia – Connectivity and Security
- Japan, India and the Asian Century