

Speakers Profile:

Anuradha R.V. is a Partner at Clarus Law Associates, New Delhi. She works on legal issues relating to international trade, climate change and environmental infrastructure projects. She advises clients on carbon trading and financing of CDM projects, and has undertaken policy advisory work on trade and environment related issues, including trade and climate change.

Anuradha has post-graduate degrees from the University of London, where her focus was on International Environmental Law, and from the New York University School of Law where her focus was on International Economic Laws.