

Workshop on
Reflections on Select Issues in Indian Economy
by Young Japanese Scholars.

August 25, 2008

PROGRAM

2:30 pm – 2:40 pm Welcome Speech: Prof. Amit Shovon Ray, Chair Professor of Trade, Technology and Competitiveness, ICRIER

2:40 – 2:50 Introduction of the SPF India Study Group by Chairman of the Group, Dr. Hideki ESHO, Professor, Department of Economics, Hosei University

Session I

Chair: Prof. Amit Shovon Ray

2:50 – 3:10 “Evolution of Corporate Cultures: A Theoretical Extension and Evidence from Japanese Companies in India and Thailand”

Presenter: Mr. Makoto Nagaishi, Researcher of the International Economy and Work Research Institute

3:10 – 3:30 “Ranbaxy - Daiichi Sankyo deal - What impact will the deal have on the Indian pharmaceutical industry?”

Presenter: Ms. Atsuko Kamiike, Part-Time Lecturer at the Faculty of Economics, Ryukoku University

3:30 – 3:50 Discussant: Dr. Sukumar Vellakkal, Fellow, ICRIER

Session II

Chair: Dr. Rajat Kathuria, Professor, ICRIER

3:50 – 4:10 “Unbundling Property Rights in India”

Presenter: Dr. Atsushi Kato, Associate Professor, School of Business, Aoyama-Gakuin University

4:10 – 4:30 “The Effects of Monetary Policy Shocks in India”

Presenter: Dr. Takahiro Sato, Associate Professor at Research Institute for Economics and Business Administrations, Kobe University

4:30 – 4:50 Discussant: Dr. Vani Archana Fellow, ICRIER

4:50 – 5:00 Closing Remarks by Dr. Rajat Kathuria